Southwest Louisiana's only one-stop shop for all things disability related

What We Do:

- We answer questions and provide assistance for any disability at any age.
- We can teach you how to advocate for your child and over time your child will learn to advocate for his or herself.
- We help you navigate support systems and overcome challenges.
- Our trained, knowledgeable staff members are parents of children with disabilities or individuals with disabilities. We are here to provide you with the support you need.

Families Helping Families SWLA is a non-profit organization. Contributions may be tax deductible. There are no fees charged for services.

Families Helping Families of Southwest Louisiana is a local family resource center that has served individuals with disabilities and their families since its incorporation as a nonprofit agency in 1992. We provide peer to peer support, information, referral and training around disability issues in the parishes of Allen, Beauregard, Calcasieu, Cameron and Jeff Davis.

We are a unique agency that can answer specific questions about disabilities from our own personal experiences. We lend a supportive and helping hand to families living with disability issues. Only at FHF SWLA can one get information from another parent or individual with a disability who has firsthand knowledge about the challenges and rewards of living with disabilities. Because of those experiences we teach others how to navigate the complex service delivery system.
